As many of you know, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office is a client of Capitol Hill Strategies so over the last several months I've been working with them to help Members of Congress and Staff learn more about Taiwan. As part of that effort, the TECRO Ambassador to the United States, Jason Yuan, suggested a dinner for Senate Chiefs of Staff at his home, the historic Twin Oaks Estate in Woodley Park (3225 Woodley Road, NW).

While a more formal invitation will be coming soon, I wanted to be sure to get the date – Monday July 18th – on your calendar so you won't miss a tremendous opportunity to enjoy Ambassador Yuan's hospitality, the company of your colleagues, and the historic beauty of a great Washington estate.

I hope you'll be able to make it – please RSVP to me when you have a moment so we can get a count. Many thanks – Paul

Email 2 (Sent June 10, 2011):

Dear Senate Chiefs (and Assistants who keep them under some measure of control):

We've now got the official invitation from the Ambassador—see attached document – so I hope you all can make it. The Ambassador also emphasized that every Chief of Staff should feel free to bring a guest – a spouse, partner, staffer or family member are all more than welcome. Apparently they have a lot of room and would be more than happy to host more people.

So far we've got a good start on RSVPs, but I KNOW there are more of you out there and hopefully you can make it. Those already on board include Todd Webster (Coons), Michelle Barlow (Wicker), Charlie Harman (Chambliss), Dean Hingson (Coats), Phil Karsting (Kohl), Don Larsen (Hoeven), Maura Keefe (Shaheen), Ed Pagano (Leahy), Amanda Renteria (Stabenow), John Sandy (Risch), Laurie Rubiner (Blumenthal), Drey Samuelson (Tim Johnson) Doug Stafford (Paul) and Peter Boylan (Inouye), Chris Joyner (Burr). So a nice bipartisan "gang of 15" to start but I'm sure we can do better!

Many thanks to all for helping to make this a success. Who knows, with enough good feeling from this event maybe you all can break out of quorum calls every once in a while! Take care – Paul

PS: Feel free to RSVP either directly to me or to the people listed on the invitation.

I wanted to pass along two invitations from the Government of Taiwan.

First, they are hoping that your Senator would consider a trip to Taiwan over the July 4th recess (or perhaps over another recess that is convenient). Please let me know if this might be possible.

Second, the Ambassador has invited all Senate Chiefs of Staff and their spouse/guest to his home for dinner on Monday July 18th. More details will follow, but the dinner will be at the Twin Oaks estate – 3225 Woodley Road NW – here in Washington DC. Again, please let me know if you can attend and if you'd like to bring a guest.

Many thanks for considering these invitations and thanks for your help. –
Paul
